FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CALOPTIMA SEEKING CANDIDATES FOR ADVISORY COMMITTEE

ORANGE, Calif. (September 10, 2015) — CalOptima is currently seeking candidates who are interested in serving on its Provider Advisory Committee (PAC). The PAC is composed of 15 members representing diverse provider constituencies, advising the CalOptima Board of Directors and staff on issues regarding CalOptima programs. Select seats represent health plans, hospitals, physicians, nurses, allied health professionals, long-term care services and community health centers.

Service on the committee is voluntary, and there is no salary. The following three-year seat is available:

- Behavioral/Mental Health Representative

The committee encourages interested individuals with knowledge and support of Medi-Cal and Medicare programs to apply by Friday, October 9, 2015. Applications and nomination process information are at www.caloptima.org in the “About Us” section under “Board and Advisory Committees.”

To apply or to nominate an individual for the PAC, please mail, fax or email the candidate application, along with a biography or résumé and at least two letters of reference to:

CalOptima
Attn: Maria Wahab
505 City Parkway West
Orange, CA 92868

PAC volunteers must commit to attending monthly meetings and serving on at least one subcommittee. For more information, contact Maria Wahab at 714-796-6143 or mwahab@caloptima.org.
